Aprašymas

FREEWELL Case for iPhone 18 Pro Max with 17 mm Mount

The FREEWELL case for iPhone 18 Pro Max is a practical solution for those who want to expand their smartphone’s photography and video capabilities. It features a standard 17 mm threaded lens mount, the Sherpa magnetic filter mounting system, and a dedicated Camera Control button. The case also supports MagSafe technology, and its durable, lightweight Kevlar construction protects your phone during everyday use.

17 mm Mount – More Photography Options

Thanks to the 17 mm threaded mount, the case allows you to use a wide range of compatible smartphone lenses. This lets you experiment with different perspectives and visual effects without having to reach for a separate camera. This is a useful solution for both creating videos and taking creative photos.

Sherpa Magnetic Filter System and Convenient Camera Control

The integrated Sherpa magnetic mount allows for quick attachment and replacement of compatible FREEWELL filters. This makes it easy to adjust your optical settings to changing lighting conditions and the nature of your shoot. A dedicated Camera Control button provides convenient access to camera functions, and MagSafe compatibility allows you to continue using compatible magnetic accessories.

Lightweight and durable Kevlar construction
