Pagrindinės savybės

- ✓ Grab a coffee, buy a newspaper at the kiosk or buy vegetables at the market - with the payment wristband for contactless payment, you can leave your wallet or purse in your bag - safe, fast and most importantly straightforward
- ✓ If you lose the NFC wristband, it can be blocked via the Fidesmo app
- ✓ Unobtrusive payment wristband: nothing on the watch strap indicates it can be used for payment
- ✓ Quick closure: quickly attach the payment wristband to watches and swap them with quick-closing spring clips
- ✓ Suitable for wrists with a circumference of between approx. 14.4 cm and 22 cm (for example for the "7010" Hama smart watch), for right and left-handed people

Aprašymas

Pay in the blink of an eye: with the payment wristband, you can leave your wallet tucked away. Simply upgrade your (smart)watch with the NFC wristband and pay contactlessly with ease. Spontaneous coffee runs or a quick stop at the bakery - make your everyday life a little less complicated.

Powered by Fidesmo
Reliable partner, uncomplicated setup: connect the payment wristband to the Fidesmo app and then add the credit or debit card to Fidesmo Pay–ready for contactless payment

Secure use of the payment wearable

Pay securely and contactlessly: the passive NFC chip is only activated when the wristband is approx. 2 - 4 cm from the card reader. A digitally encrypted token, derived from the linked card’s card number, is used in the payment wristband

800+ partner banks
Huge network: the Fidesmo app supports 800 banks worldwide, and this network is constantly being expanded - your bank is sure to be among them

Visa and Mastercard certified
Highest standards: Visa and Mastercard agree, which is why the entire payment wristband is certified, from the wristband to the app to the chip

For a web width of 22 mm
Universal measurement: with the standard web width of 22 mm, suitable for many analogue watches, Hama smart watches and other brands

Silicone wristband with stainless steel buckle
Timeless and elegant: design harmonises with many wristwatches and smart watches, the soft yet robust silicone is comfortable to wear against the skin
