Aprašymas

Automatic minute taking to help you focus on your meetings

Sembly will join any call it is invited to, introduce itself, and record the call. It can even attend a call when you’re not there! You can focus on the conversation and not get distracted by having to take notes.

Instant meeting summary so you know the outcome of every meeting at one glance

Shortly after a call, the transcript of the conversation will appear in the Sembly app, which you can read, search, and share as needed.

Automated meeting action points for saving time

Sembly’s smart AI tracks actions, issues, requirements and more to help you zoom-in on key items, in case you missed something during your call or just want to confirm specific details from the discussion.

Voice ID for clear speaker separation

Sembly offers advanced features such as the revolutionary VoiceID algorithm, which identify speakers in meetings and is able to separate the transcripts per person to see who said what. Each speaker is assigned their own virtual "voice fingerprint".
