FRONT ZIPPERED POCKET SECURED WITH A WATERPROOF ZIPPER

When out and about you want to be able to quickly get things put away so that you can crack on with you day. Fortunately this Dijon bag has with it a front zippered pocket that allows for small personal belongings to be tucked away easily and swiftly. A waterproof zipper means that all your essential items will be protected from rain, so that regardless of whether you are outside in the elements you can remain safe in knowledge that your possession will remain free from harm.

SMART DETACHABLE KEY STRAP

There are few things worse than having to rummage around at the bottom of your bag looking for your pair of keys. This is made even worse and more 'typical' when it's cold and wet outside. In order to circumvent this particular issue we have placed a smart detachable key strap within the inside the front pocket. This means that you will always know where your keys are, when you need them, and are never caught out when in a rush.

DRAW STRING CINCH FOR EASY ACCESS

You want to be able to get in and out of your bag with ultimate ease. Time is too short for having to mess around with straps and buckles. This laptop bag is closed by use of an old school draw string cinch, meaning that you are in and out in seconds. Sometimes the more vintage approach the better and in this case we most certainly agree. The easy access to this Dijon laptop bag is just another feature that will help you feel like you are moving through your day with maximum ease.

TWO VELCRO SIDE POCKETS

Because you want to make sure you are prepared for staying out on the move all day and not be forced to return to any amenities to replenish your supplies or retrieve a crucial item, this Dijon laptop bag provides not one but two side pockets that allow for you to take with you that extra water bottle or drink, or umbrella or whatever else you might need for the day ahead. The Velcro flaps fix down securely so that your fluids or other items are kept securely in place.

QUICK ACCESS SIDE ZIP

Sometimes there simply isn't time to be messing around with your bag opening and fastening it in order to get the item you need. Often, you need your essential you need it now. Or, maybe, you are the kind of organised packer who knows exactly in what order everything is packed, from top to bottom. For this reason this Dijon bag has a side providing immediate access to your main compartment and your belongings. This 'grab and go' feature is great for those that are on the move and do not want to have to stop every time they need to get a particular item.

DEDICATED LAPTOP POCKET

Because, these days, many of us need or have multiple devices, this Dijon laptop bag contains within it a dedicated laptop pocket that can fit a 15.6" laptop and features a pocket for a Tablet up to 10.1 inch as well as a zippered pocket for personal belongings. This means that all your most precious and valuable items will remain firmly in place in their own specially designed spot but also remain easily accessed.

With this bag you can access up to 30 litres capacity at a moments notice. The capacious main compartment will allow you to store all of your sports stuff as well as any other clothes or belongings that you may need with you that day depending on your destination point. It is a nasty feeling to leave you house or work or head out anywhere and feel that you are under provided for. However with this level of space, you will feel more flexible and adaptable in your day to day and never feel you have to sacrifice any item for lack of room.

ERGONOMIC DESIGN OF THE BACK

It is important to choose a backpack that sacrifices nothing in the way of comfort. Not only is this crucial for one's state of mind but more than that it is important for your health. One way in which this bag has been designed to provide ultimate comfort is the breathable mesh back panel which will allow air flow and will prevent any kind of perspiration from building up and creating discomfort. This is just one example of the attention to ergonomics that this range provides to ensure that you are optimising your well-being and flexibility at all times.

COMFORTABLE SHOULDER STRAPS WITH SOFTENED BANDS

A bag with straps that dig into your neck and shoulders is a bag that should be binned. With this Dijon range however, we have sacrificed nothing in the way of comfort. Your health and well being is just too important to us. To this end, we have created comfortable shoulder straps with softened bands that mean that you will be able to hold considerable weight without ever feeling and ache or pain. This means that you can take your laptop bag anywhere, anytime, with the knowledge that it will give you no trouble at all.

SOFT CARRYING HANDLE

Sometimes you haven't the time or the inclination to use your backpack in an orthodox way. If you are at an airport or moving it around the gym, sometimes you just want to grab it and go. In order to help you with this we have created a soft carrying handle so that you can keep on the move wherever you are and the material used will ensure that whatever weight you are carrying, you can do so with comfort and ease.

FULLY ADJUSTABLE STERNUM STRAP

All backpacks these days require a sternum strap. It is an indispensable requirement for anyone that likes to feel secure and stable while moving around. This Dijon backpack's sternum strap goes one step further in design and enables you to slide it up and down on the shoulder strap permitting you to choose its most comfortable position. Its length can also be adjusted so that you can tighten or loosen it at your discretion. The chest strap then connects to the shoulder straps and reduces the jarring of the backpack. All in all, this device will give you the balance you need as you go about your day.

STERNUM STRAP BUCKLE WITH AN INTEGRATED RESCUE WHISTLE

One of the coolest features of this bag is the integrated rescue whistle located on the sternum strap buckle. Built in to the bag's buckle, this device will mean that you are never without this potentially life saving device. This particular feature is what makes this bag so perfect for people that interested in any kind of sporting exercise. If you find yourself up or hill or or lost in darkness or any kind of scenario where you need to coordinate attention on your position, then simply blow on this whistle and your can expect to direct any possible help in your direction to assuage your distress.

STRAP MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

If you are interested in sports like skating or cycling, running or hiking, then you will know the importance of ensuring that a your are preventative of any kind of lose straps or ties getting in your way. They can not only be a hinderance but also present a danger when they get snagged. In order to help you with this, this Dijon backpack comes with a special band of Velcro on the end of the strap which allows you to roll the excessive strap and fix it, preventing its dangling. As a result, this strap management system will mean that you have everything squared away, neatly folded and fixed in place.

STURDY BUCKLE ON THE FRONT

If you are out and about hiking up a hill you need to be able to have some of your items ready-to-hand and available should without having to go through the rigmarole of taking your bag off and going through your stuff. To help with this, this bag has been designed with a sturdy buckle on the front for clipping a light reflective pendant or a flash light to or whatever else you may need or want to have close at hand for helping you with your trip or day ahead.

will provide you with a multi-functional bag that you can take anywhere without fear that, if caught in a sudden shower, any of your items inside will be damaged. Its stretchiness will offer you enough give to provide you with that extra space and, moreover, its breathable nature means that it is ergonomically perfect for carrying sportswear post-gym or exercise.

SPECIALLY DESIGNED ZIPPER PULLS

It is important when using your bag that you can feel secure that it will not let you down when you need it most. Faulty zips and pulls are not only an annoyance but can lead to loss of possessions with ultimately very serious consequences. In order to counteract this we have designed the zipper pulls on this bag with stretchy rope ties coupled with hard cover caps so you can be robust when pulling open your bag and do not feel the need to be too careful or delicate with it.

COMPRESSION STRAPS

We all want to feel compact and self-contained as we move around with our bags. As such we have made sure that this Dijon backpack comes with specially designed regulating compression straps. Compression straps allow you to make your bag as condensed and tightly packed as possible. Sturdy buckles fix the upper and bottom part of the backpack meaning that you will ultimately be far more stable and can move around with far more ease than if you were using a standard backpack.

RAIN COVER

When out in the countryside or even commuting around town you need to know that your most precious possessions remain safe within your bag. This is why this Dijon rucksack comes with its own rain cover so that you can rest it down on the side of the court, skate-park or when setting up your tent and be safe in the knowledge that nothing will be damaged. This, along with the already water resistant fabric, will offer you the fully waterproof bag you need.

HIDDEN ZIPPERED POCKET

Sometimes you need to have the extra layer of security for your most valuable or important items. In order to give you this we have provided this bag with a hidden zippered pocket so that you can discreetly hide away your possessions and know that they will remain away from sight, safe and secure.
