EK-Quantum Lumen 7 LCD Auxiliary Display - Silver Edition

The EK-Quantum Lumen 7 LCD represents the pinnacle of PC aesthetic and performance monitoring. Designed for enthusiasts and custom loop builders, this specialized 7-inch high-resolution display allows you to showcase real-time system statistics, custom visualizations, or unique personal content directly within your computer case or workspace. Its sleek, premium silver finish ensures it integrates perfectly into high-end builds using silver or chrome components.

Advanced Visual Feedback

Moving beyond basic diagnostics, the Lumen 7 transforms how you interact with your PC. Whether you need to monitor critical temperatures, GPU load, CPU clock speeds, or simply display engaging wallpapers, this auxiliary screen delivers crystal-clear images and vibrant colors.
