for extreme 4K and 8K gaming resolutions and complex rendering tasks.

Optimized Cooling and Premium Design

The INNO3D iChill X3 variant is engineered for peak thermal efficiency and stability. The bespoke iChill X3 cooling system utilizes three powerful fans and an optimized heatsink design to maintain low temperatures even during intense, prolonged gaming sessions. This ensures sustained high boost clock speeds, providing a significant advantage in performance without sacrificing acoustics.

Key Features and Benefits:

- Next-Gen GDDR7 Memory: Features 16 GB of ultra-fast GDDR7 memory, providing substantial bandwidth improvements over previous generations for superior texture loading and data processing.
- Advanced Cooling Technology: The proprietary INNO3D iChill X3 tri-fan cooler ensures exceptional thermal dissipation and quiet operation under heavy load.
- Future-Proof Performance: Built upon the innovative NVIDIA GeForce RTX 50 series architecture, ready to accelerate next-generation Ray Tracing effects and AI-driven performance (DLSS technology).
- Ideal for High Resolution: Delivers smooth frame rates and exceptional fidelity for gaming at 4K resolution and beyond.

INNO3D is recognized globally for manufacturing high-performance graphics cards, focusing on innovative cooling solutions and reliable, factory-optimized designs that push the boundaries of PC gaming and professional rendering.
