that optimizes brightness and color temperature for your environment, BenQ has thought of eye health well beyond just blue light protection. No guesswork, no fiddling—just comfortable viewing, from 9 to 5 and beyond.

Adaptive Comfort, Your Way

The Visual Optimizer (V.O.) Hotkey lets you tweak brightness and color temperature separately—for a screen that feels just right.

We Cut Blue Light, Not Color Quality

BenQ's TÜV-certified Low Blue Light technology protects your eyes during long hours of work, without giving your screen a yellowish tint. You can fine-tune the level to find the right balance, so your work always looks the way it should.

Say Goodbye to Invisible Flicker

Even screens that seem perfectly fine can flicker—too subtle for you to see, but not for your eyes. BenQ's TÜV-certified Flicker-Free technology keeps the screen steady and your eyes comfortable, even during long workdays.

Certified Eye Comfort You Can Trust

Backed by TÜV Rheinland's Eye Comfort 4-Star certification and Eyesafe Certified 2.0 endorsement, the BL2790TC meets strict international standards for visual wellness. It's proof your eyes are in good hands, every hour of the day.

Sharp Images, Gentle on the Eyes

Experience vivid colors and reliable clarity from any angle with the BL2790TC's IPS panel and 99% sRGB color gamut. Its 4-sided ultrathin bezels help you stay focused and comfortable through document edits and multitasking throughout the day.

Streamlined Design, Smarter Workflow

Thoughtfully crafted for a clean desk, efficient connections, and comfortable workdays.

One USB-C Does It All

USB-C simplifies your workflow by transferring data, powering devices, and connecting to your devices with just one cable.
