cm wide left-side panel seamlessly integrates with the existing structure, allowing you to create a customized workspace tailored precisely to your needs.

Seamless Modularity and Aesthetic Design

Designed specifically for the Holm Modular line, this side panel ensures complete aesthetic cohesion. Forget about visible gaps or mismatched surfaces; the connection between this module and the fixed center section is completely flush and professional. Whether you need slightly more room for peripherals, extra study space, or want to optimize the shape of your desktop, this addition provides the perfect solution for personalized desk management.

Key Features of the Holm Side Panel:

- Dedicated Left Side Extension: Adds 30 cm of crucial width to the left side of the desk.
- Perfect Compatibility: Engineered specifically for seamless integration with the Genesis Holm Modular desk frame and tabletop.
- High-Quality Construction: Durable surface made from robust MDF material, ensuring longevity and stability.
- Aesthetic Integration: Ensures a professional, flush connection with the main desk section for a clean look.
- Easy Assembly: Designed for instant and simple mounting without complex tools.
- Stylish Finish: Presented in a modern Anthracite Black color matching the Holm series.

Genesis specializes in crafting reliable, ergonomic, and high-performance equipment specifically for gamers and power users. Their focus on modularity allows users to build personalized, scalable environments suited for intense gaming sessions and demanding work tasks.
