The TCL 50Q6C is built for speed, boasting an impressive 144Hz refresh rate. Whether you are watching fast-paced sports or engaging in demanding video games, the high refresh rate ensures incredibly smooth, blur-free motion. Enhanced further by the PPI (Picture Performance Index) 4200 technology, every frame is sharp and clear, providing a truly immersive viewing experience.

Smart Features and Seamless Connectivity

As a full-featured Smart TV, the 50Q6C grants easy access to your favorite streaming services, apps, and content via built-in Wi-Fi. The comprehensive connectivity options include four HDMI ports for connecting multiple consoles or media players, along with one USB port for media playback. Integrated DVB-T2/C/S2 tuners ensure compatibility with all modern digital signal formats.
