Experience the pinnacle of virtual reality immersion with the Pimax Crystal Super VR-Headset. Designed for demanding enthusiasts and professionals, the Crystal sets a new standard for visual fidelity, offering unparalleled clarity thanks to its advanced QLED display technology and exceptional resolution density.

The Pimax Crystal boasts an industry-leading clarity of 57 Pixels Per Degree (PPD), delivering images so sharp and detailed that the "screen door effect" is virtually eliminated. Combined with vibrant colors and deep contrasts of the QLED panel, users can dive into simulations, games, or professional applications with truly realistic visuals.

Key Features and Specifications:

- Ultimate Clarity (57 PPD): Achieve visual fidelity far surpassing typical consumer VR devices, ensuring crisp texts and fine details in every scene.
- QLED Display Technology: Provides stunningly bright images, wide color gamut, and superior contrast ratios for a truly immersive experience.
- Integrated Eye-Tracking: Enhances performance and immersion by utilizing foveated rendering, focusing graphical power where the user is looking, thereby improving frame rates and visual quality efficiently.
- PC Compatibility: Seamlessly connects with high-end gaming PCs, providing access to vast libraries of VR content and demanding simulators.
- Ergonomic Design: Engineered for comfort during extended usage sessions, ensuring the headset remains stable and light.

PIMAX is a pioneering brand in the high-fidelity virtual reality sector, known for pushing the boundaries of resolution and field-of-view (FOV) to deliver professional-grade immersion for consumers and enterprises alike.
