The small evaporator sets new standards

With just one filter cassette, Alaze achieves almost the performance of a much larger two-cassette evaporator.

This is thanks to the new, patented DAST technology. Not only is its performance remarkable, but its operation is also simple and understandable. Furthermore, Alaze displays the most important information in beautiful ambient lighting. Green indicates optimally humidified air, orange indicates dry air, and red indicates water needs to be added. Water can be easily refilled via the opening at the top. Last but not least, cleaning this humidifier is super easy: simply place the base in the dishwasher and remove the grille using the two screws.

Many arguments for the Alaze, true to the motto: small but mighty! Vendor Homepage:
