Unrivaled Speed and Response

Achieve peak performance with an astounding 300Hz refresh rate, capable of being overclocked to 310Hz for the ultimate competitive advantage. Paired with extreme low response times, motion blur is virtually eliminated, guaranteeing liquid-smooth gameplay even in the fastest action sequences.

- Extreme Refresh Rate: Native 300Hz, overclockable up to 310Hz for superior fluidity and low input lag.
- Lightning-Fast Response: 1ms GtG (Grey-to-Grey) and an incredible 0.3ms MPRT minimize ghosting and ensure sharp transitions.
- Adaptive Sync Technology: Ensures tear-free, stutter-free visuals by synchronizing the monitor's refresh rate with your GPU (G-SYNC Compatible functionality).

Vibrant Fast IPS Panel with HDR Support

The Fast IPS panel not only provides rapid response times but also maintains excellent color accuracy and wide viewing angles (178°/178°). With support for HDR400, the 25G4SRE renders games with greater contrast and dynamic range, pulling you deeper into the virtual world.

- Fast IPS Panel: Delivers superb color fidelity and wide viewing angles without sacrificing speed.
- Full HD Resolution (1920x1080): The optimal resolution for maximizing framerates in competitive play.
- HDR400 Ready: Enhanced contrast and brighter images for a more immersive visual experience.
- FlickerFree Technology: Reduces eye strain during extended gaming sessions.

Connectivity and Design

Built with the competitive gamer in mind, the 25G4SRE features a professional eSports base that provides stability. Connectivity is robust, featuring dual HDMI 2.0 ports, DisplayPort 1.4, and a built-in USB hub for seamless peripheral connection.

AOC (Admiral Overseas Corporation) is a globally recognized leader in display technology, celebrated for delivering cutting-edge monitors that meet the rigorous demands of professional eSports and everyday users alike.
