Step into the world of high-performance gaming with the Lenovo LOQ 15AHP10. Designed for gamers who demand reliability and speed, this laptop combines a sleek Luna Grey aesthetic with powerful internals. The 15.6-inch Full HD IPS display features an anti-glare coating, ensuring you stay focused on the action without distracting reflections, providing crystal-clear visuals from every angle.

Powerful Performance and Graphics

Under the hood, the Lenovo LOQ is powered by an AMD Ryzen 5 processor and 16GB of high-speed DDR5 RAM, making multitasking and intensive gaming sessions a breeze. The standout feature is the NVIDIA GeForce RTX 5050 graphics card with 8GB of GDDR7 memory, delivering cutting-edge visuals and smooth frame rates for the latest titles. With a 512GB Solid-state drive, you will enjoy lightning-fast boot times and plenty of space for your favorite games.

Designed for Gamers

Every detail of the LOQ 15AHP10 is crafted for an optimal experience. The backlit keyboard allows for precise control even in low-light environments, while the English layout provides a familiar typing experience. Equipped with Windows 11 Home, you have access to the latest gaming features and security updates. Connectivity is seamless with Wi-Fi 6 (802.11ax) and Bluetooth 5.3, ensuring stable online play and easy peripheral pairing.
