Sling Bag 7L / 14" Tomtoc Navigator-T24 (black)

The Tomtoc Navigator-T24 is a comfortable one shoulder backpack, whose lower part of the laptop compartment has been reinforced with CornerArmor technology reinforcing its edges and corners to provide the most effective shock protection. The zippers sewn into the design are from YKK, a company revered for its quality. The outer zipper has a waterproof coating. The bag is made from recycled fabric.

Interior

Inside, on the back side, there is a laptop compartment fastened with a Velcro strap, which can accommodate, for example, a 14-inch MacBook Pro. Below that lies a tablet compartment, which can store an 11-inch iPad Pro. a pen pocket. Another pocket also has a smaller compartment for, say, an Apple Pencil or a regular pen. Opposite is placed a zippered pocket and a bottle pocket. On the outside, a zippered pocket is hidden in the lower back pad, which is great for storing documents, a phone or wallet there. On the front, too, there is a zippered pocket - it is opened from the side so that you can easily access it without having to remove the backpack. In the middle of it a sewn-in strap with a carabiner, to which you can clip a key or AirTag.

Thoughtful design

The backpack has numerous pockets, including one tucked into a cushion on the back. Thanks to the carabiner and hook, located on both sides of the backpack, the user can wear it on any shoulder. A sturdy buckle located on the front allows the backpack to be conveniently unfastened at any time.
