The P1425 features a vibrant WUXGA resolution (1920 x 1200) on a premium IPS panel, ensuring consistent colors and incredibly wide 178° viewing angles. The productivity-focused 16:10 aspect ratio offers more vertical screen space compared to standard 16:9 displays, reducing scrolling and enhancing efficiency for document and data work. With 400 cd/m<sup>2</sup> brightness, this display performs reliably even in well-lit environments, while the 7 ms response time ensures smooth visual performance for everyday tasks.
