lightweight device allows you to virtually double your viewing space instantly, providing an essential upgrade for remote work, presentations, or multimedia consumption on the go.

Unmatched Portability and Seamless Connectivity

The Lenovo L15 is engineered for true mobility. Weighing approximately 860 grams and boasting a slim profile of just 6 mm, it easily slips into a bag's front pocket. Connectivity is effortless via a single USB Type-C cable, which handles both video transmission and can offer simultaneous power pass-through to two connected devices, simplifying your setup and reducing cable clutter.

Crisp Visuals and Ergonomic Design

Enjoy sharp, clear visuals on the 15.6-inch Full HD (1920 x 1080) IPS anti-glare display. With wide 178° viewing angles (horizontal and vertical), the screen delivers consistent colors and brightness, making it ideal for collaboration. Furthermore, the L15 features advanced low blue light technology, ensuring comfortable viewing during extended working sessions.
