The iiyama G-Master GB2795HSU-B1 Gold Phoenix is meticulously crafted to give competitive gamers the ultimate advantage. Featuring a large 27-inch display combined with an ultra-fast 280Hz refresh rate, this monitor delivers spectacularly fast, fluid motion that is essential for top-tier gameplay. Say goodbye to motion blur and latency, and prepare to unleash your full gaming potential.

Unrivaled Speed and Clarity

Equipped with a Full HD (1920 x 1080) VA panel, the GB2795HSU-B1 provides clear, sharp visuals across its 68.6 cm diagonal screen. The monitor's blazing-fast 0.2ms response time ensures that ghosting and smearing are virtually eliminated, allowing you to react instantly to in-game situations without being held back by your gear. The matt display surface minimizes reflections, keeping your focus firmly on the action.

FreeSync Premium for Seamless Action

Experience smooth, tear-free gameplay thanks to AMD FreeSync Premium technology. This feature synchronizes the monitor's refresh rate with your GPU's frame rate, ensuring impeccable visual fluidity even during the most graphically demanding sequences. This superior synchronization is crucial for maintaining competitive performance.
