Aprašymas

Freewell Case for Samsung S26 Ultra

The Freewell Pro Filmmaker Case for the Samsung Galaxy S26 Ultra is designed for creators who want to expand their smartphone’s photography and video capabilities. The case features a 17 mm thread, compatible with lenses that use this standard, as well as Freewell’s magnetic filter mounting system, which allows for quick attachment of compatible filters. The case is also MagSafe-compatible, allowing it to work with magnetic chargers and accessories. The design incorporates Kevlar® fiber, which provides high durability while maintaining a lightweight profile, making the case ideal for both everyday use and mobile videography.

More possibilities thanks to the 17 mm thread

The built-in 17 mm thread allows you to mount compatible mobile lenses without the need for additional adapters. This lets you use wide-angle, macro, telephoto, or anamorphic lenses, tailoring your setup to specific shots. Quick accessory mounting streamlines your workflow while taking photos and recording videos, allowing you to change your equipment configuration in an instant. This solution is designed for people who expect greater flexibility when creating mobile content.

Magnetic filter system and full MagSafe compatibility

The case works with Freewell magnetic filters, making it possible to attach and remove them in just a moment. This allows you to efficiently adapt the setup to changing lighting conditions and quickly switch between different effects. Additionally, full compatibility with MagSafe technology allows
