Aprašymas

Freewell case for iPhone 17 Pro Max with 17mm mount

The Freewell iPhone 17 Pro Max Filmmaker Case is a case designed for content creators who want to get the most out of their iPhone's camera. It allows you to instantly attach Freewell Sherpa magnetic filters and MagSafe accessories, while offering solid protection from bumps and scratches. With a precision 17mm mount, you can use a wide range of professional lenses and optical effects to achieve cinematic image quality in any conditions.

Magnetic filter system

The Magnetic Filter System used in the case allows you to mount Freewell Sherpa filters in no time - no adapters, no tools, no messy movements. This allows seamless effect changes and real-time exposure control, which any filmmaker or mobile photographer will appreciate.

Precision 17mm mount

The built-in 17mm mount provides full compatibility with high-end 17mm lenses, ensuring a stable mount and perfect fit. It's a solution that expands the camera capabilities of your iPhone 17 Pro Max, allowing you to create cinematic shots with full depth-of-field and perspective control.

MagSafe Compatibility

The Freewell Filmmaker Case works with all MagSafe chargers and accessories. So you can use wireless charging, holders or powerbanks without removing the case. Convenience of use goes hand in hand with professional use here.

Sleek, durable design

Despite its advanced features, the Freewell iPhone 17 Pro Max Filmmaker Case maintains a slim profile that fits perfectly in the hand and easily fits in your pocket. It combines a sleek design with premium durability - perfect for those who value both aesthetics and practicality.

Kevlar resistance to extreme conditions

The case is made of Kevlar fibers - a material up to five times stronger than steel, used in aviation and military applications. This makes the case extremely lightweight, yet resistant to impacts, drops and everyday wear and tear. Whether you're recording outdoors or in the studio, you can count on reliable protection for your iPhone.
