Aprašymas

Experience visual clarity and immersive audio with the Cablexpert AOC Series HDMI cable. Designed for enthusiasts and professionals, this Ultra High Speed HDMI cable with Ethernet offers 8K60Hz support and HDR, bringing your favorite movies, games, and streaming content to life with vivid colors and sharp contrasts. The inclusion of Active Optical Cable (AOC) technology and a bandwidth of 48 Gbps ensures that you're equipped for the future of high-definition content.

Constructed with durability in mind, the cable features a robust nylon jacket and gold-plated connectors, ensuring it can withstand the rigors of daily use while maintaining a high-quality signal. Color-coded connectors simplify the setup process, and EMI/RFI protection keeps interference at bay. With support for Dolby Atmos and Dolby Vision, along with compliance to several industry standards including HDCP 2.2, this HDMI cable is the perfect choice for creating an advanced home theater system.
