Aprašymas

The DICOTA TWO notebook carrying backpack is designed for convenience and functionality. With a capacity of 20 liters, it features a padded compartment that fits 14-inch notebooks, ensuring protection during transport. The bag is crafted from 300D RPET polyester, made from 9 recycled PET bottles, making it an eco-friendly choice. It offers multiple carrying options with a trolley strap, shoulder carrying straps, and top carry handle, allowing for versatile usage. Additional compartments include a front pocket, a side mesh pocket, and space for documents, keeping your essentials organized. The padded back adds comfort for extended wear while the water-repellent material helps protect your belongings from moisture. This stylish and practical backpack combines sustainability with everyday utility.
