Aprašymas

The DICOTA Commuter backpack is designed for those who prioritize both style and functionality in daily travels. Made from 100% recycled 300D RPET polyester, this backpack showcases eco-friendly innovation without compromising on durability. It features a lightweight design that ensures a comfortable carry while accommodating notebooks up to 16 inches. With multiple compartments including a front pocket, zippered accessory pocket, and a water bottle holder, organizing essentials has never been easier. The padded back and shoulder straps provide additional comfort and support during commutes or travels.
