Aprašymas

The 3M™ Headgear G500 is a versatile and comfortable solution for use as a standalone face protection system or for combined face and hearing protection.

Special design features make it easy to combine the G500 with other 3M™ Safety Products such as face shields, passive earmuffs or communication headsets and integrated eyewear. This high quality product provides protection against impacts from the front and side, while special attention at the design stage has ensured maximum visibility and wearer comfort.
