Aprašymas

Striking cement behind a doorframe or under a floorboard used to bring work to a halt for an expensive blade change. Not with the EXPERT MultiMaterial Segment, a blade tough enough to cut grout and mortar as well as solid surface counter tops and abrasive laminates and composites. It just keeps on going.

The Bosch EXPERT MultiMaterial Segment Blade for Multitool is another leap forward in Bosch Carbide Technology: for the first time, a huge curved carbide strip has been welded firmly to a multitool blade. It offers the highest precision and lifespan among segment blades.
