The integration of a stunning 480 Hz refresh rate ensures that fast-paced action remains fluid and tear-free, giving you a crucial competitive edge in high-stakes situations. Paired with the deep blacks and vibrant colors inherent to the OLED panel, the INZONE M10S delivers image quality that is truly breathtaking. Because OLED pixels emit their own light, motion blur is virtually non-existent, ensuring every frame is rendered with perfect clarity.

Seamless Gaming Integration

This premium gaming monitor supports G-SYNC Compatible technology, ensuring synchronized frames with your NVIDIA graphics card. This synchronization eliminates screen tearing and stuttering, providing an exceptionally smooth and responsive gaming experience, regardless of the frame rate fluctuation.

Key Features:

- 26.5-inch screen size with crystal-clear WQHD resolution (2560 x 1440) for high-detail visuals.
- Blazing-fast 480 Hz refresh rate enables ultra-smooth gameplay and minimum input lag essential for competitive play.
- OLED panel technology delivers infinite contrast, true black levels, and phenomenal color accuracy.
- G-SYNC Compatible certification ensures perfectly synchronized, tear-free visuals.
- Part of the esteemed Sony INZONE series, optimized for exceptional gaming performance and connectivity.

SONY is globally recognized for its commitment to innovation and high-quality electronics, particularly in the realm of entertainment and professional imaging. The INZONE series represents their dedicated effort to deliver best-in-class performance specifically tailored for the demanding world of PC and console gaming.
